Administration

- Assistant City Manager Mike Ekey met with Heather Benoit, Managing Director of Strategic Foresight with SGR in Dallas, Texas, to discuss trend in local government and how the City or Raymore is using its Community Conversations, Strategic planning and Comprehensive Planning processes to move the community forward in the future.

Communications

- The Summer 2021 issue of The Review/Parks & Rec Program Guide should be in Raymore mailboxes in the next few days. The Review is packed full of community news and information on upcoming events, tiny, youth, high school and adult sports leagues and recreation programs.
- Communications Manager Melissa Harmer ordered the Raymore Arts Commission's 2021 Event Passports. Pick up a passport for free starting June 1 at opening Day of the Raymore Farmers Market, at any Raymore Arts Commission event or at Raymore City Hall. The passport lists all of the commission's community events throughout the year. Passport holders get a stamp each time they attend an arts event and those with the most stamps will have a chance to win prizes at the end of the year.
- Communications Manager Melissa Harmer attended a KU Public Management Centers Emerging Leaders Academy class via Zoom.

Development Services

- City Planner Katie Jardieu attended a class for KU Emerging Leaders via Zoom.

- GIS Coordinator Heather Eisenbarth worked on an app for Engineering Services to assist in accurate data collection.
- Code Enforcement Officer Drayton Vogel worked to address the uptick in overgrown lawns and other code infractions throughout the City.
- A Good Neighbor meeting for Saddlebrook subdivision was held on Wednesday, May 19.

Parks & Recreation

- Recreation and Facilities Superintendent Jimmy Gibbs and Parks Superintendent Steve Rulo met with Ideal Landscape for a walk through of the sprayground equipment at T.B. Hanna Station. The Variety KC Inclusive Sprayground is on and operational in preparation for the grand opening of the park May 26.
- Park Administrative staff and Communications Manager Melissa Harmer met to finalize plans for the grand opening of T.B. Hanna Station and discuss summer fundraising opportunities for the Hawk's Nest All-Inclusive playground at Hawk Ridge Park.
- Athletic Coordinator Todd Brennon opened the recreational season of youth baseball/softball this week. Concessions are fully operational and Brennon and Superintendent Gibbs are getting the concession stand at T.B. Hanna Station ready to go for special events throughout the summer.
- We are hiring! All seasonal and part-time positions have been posted on our website, the Missouri Parks and Recreation Association website and the National Recreation and Park Association career page.
- Recreation Coordinator Corinne Daut hosted a summer camp parent meeting as we prepare for a June 1 start for this year's camp. Daut also continues to plan the Spirit of America event, the upcoming Family

Campout event and is preparing for the Summer League, a national online Fortnite league.

- Recreation Park will host a baseball tournament on Saturday and Sunday and, weather permitting, this is the final Saturday for spring soccer and flag football.
- Parks and Recreation Director Nathan Musteen attended the quarterly Region Directors meeting of the Missouri Parks and Recreation Association. Musteen also participated in an online continuing educational session hosted by MPRA.
- Parks Administration, Public Works Director Mike Krass and members from CFS Engineers met to kick off the Hawk Ridge Park and Sunset Lane projects approved by voters in the 2020 No Tax Increase Bond issue.

Police

- All Raymore officers had the opportunity to train with the MILO firearms training simulator, provided by Midwest Public Risk, for critical incident training, de-escalation, decision support training, traditional tactical judgement training and firearms proficiency.
- Several Raymore officers participated in the Drive-Thru BBQ, which was hosted by Redwood of Raymore.
- The Animal Control Officers and our other temporary 4-legged residents are enjoying some Spring remodeling at the Shelter.
- Capt. Jim Wilson and Chief Jan Zimmerman met with Child Protection Center Director Lisa Mizell and newly appointed Belton Chief Scott Lyons to discuss.
- Lt. Aly Abdelgawad led the Mid America Crisis Intervention Team Council Zoom meeting and discussed recent, in person, training conducted under new COVID precautions. Nominations were also received for the Governing Board.

- Chief Jan Zimmerman hosted the Surviving Spouse and Family Endowment Advisory Board meeting via Zoom.
- Capt. Jim Wilson travelled to Branson to receive an award on behalf of the Cass County Youth Court Initiative at the Missouri Juvenile Justice Association Conference.
- Lt. Aly Abdelgawad participated in a Missouri Incident Based Reporting System (MIBRS) audit conducted by Kerri Smith from the CJIS Division of the Missouri State Highway Patrol.
- Capt. Jim Wilson and Chief Jan Zimmerman participated in the Ray Pec School Security Task Force at the district office in Peculiar.
- Communications Supervisor Adrienne Rinehart reviewed and processed applications for vacant Communications Officer positions.
- Chief Jan Zimmerman met with Grandview Chief Charles Iseman to discuss and sign a sponsorship agreement to access the Houston HIDTA LPR domain.
