Re: Eagle Glen Trail (North) Temporary Public Art

The Public Art Committee is requesting approval of the Astral Projection Yellow sculpture for the temporary public art at the north area of Eagle Glen Trail.

This location was identified by the Parks & Recreation Board and Parks and Recreation staff as a priority location for public art.

The committee held a public meeting for public feedback on Sept. 1 where they selected the piece and forwarded it to the full Arts Commission.

If approved tonight, staff will begin developing a schedule with the artist for installation.

Re: Holiday Sing Along, FY 2023 budget

The annual Holiday Sing Along in partnership with St. Paul's Methodist Church and the Raymore-Peculiar High School Choir program has been a successful community event since 2018.

This program includes an afternoon (3:30 p.m., Monday, Dec. 5, 2022) of music with community members singing along to Christmas carols.

Commissioner Setser and members of the Ray-Pec Choir program will arrange for music and programming. The Communications Department will advertise and provide logistical support.

Budget for the program includes a donation to the church for organizing the event, payment for the choir director and accompanist and advertising.

Total $800

This item would place this program in the FY 2023 budget and will have no impact on the current budget.
